

Rights of businesses

Activity

- a) Discuss with the students the idea that businesses have rights when they sell goods and services to consumers and ask the students to describe some rights they think businesses have.

Make sure the discussion covers:

- The right to be paid for goods they are selling.
- The idea that businesses can refuse to fix a problem with goods or services when the consumer caused that problem.

