

MINISTRY OF CONSUMER AFFAIRS
MANATŪ KAIHOKOHOKO

I bought suspicious medicine

What should I do?

If you have purchased suspicious or unfamiliar pills or substances, stop using them immediately.

See a doctor or qualified medical professional as soon as possible.

Tell them what you have bought.

Show them the packaging.

Let them know if you changed your previous treatment when you started using this new substance.